

Announcement

The all readers of the website of the Communist (Maoist) Party of Afghanistan are informed that:

Recently, the invalid website of Shola Javid has started publishing Shola Javid issue (27), which has deep ideological-political, philosophical and revisionist deviations, and this issue has nothing to do with the Communist (Maoist) Party of Afghanistan.

As we mentioned in the previous announcements, the Shola Javid's website (www.sholajavid.org) is not valid and any article published from this website address does not represent the Communist (Maoist) Party of Afghanistan. And the only official website of the Communist (Maoist) Party of Afghanistan is (www.cmpa.io) and its corresponding email address is (sholajavid2@hotmail.com).

It is worth mentioning that the twenty-seventh issue of Shola Javid round four was published as a special issue on the occasion of Comrade Zia's passing in September 2020 by the Communist (Maoist) Party of Afghanistan and continued until the twenty-ninth issue. After the third National Congress of the Party, the fifth round of Shola Javid has been published until the ninth issue. The publication of number (27) of the so-called Shola Javid on the invalid website of Shola Javid - two years after Comrade Zia's death - is another conspiracy against the Communist (Maoist) Party of Afghanistan.

We will try to identify the deep ideological-political, philosophical and revisionism deviations of the authors of the so-called "Shola Javid" as part of our struggle against revisionism and imperialism to show how far these authors have strayed from the basic Marxist-Leninist-Maoist principles and they have gone astray on the path of revisionism and reformism.
