Comrade Zahir passed away on November 7, 2023 at the age of 63. Although this revolutionary comrade is no longer among us, his memory will remain forever among the members of the party and other revolutionaries of the country who knew him.

Comrade Zahir was one of the active and warrior comrades of the C(M)PA, who after the death of Comrade Ghasemi took charge of the basic unit of 7th Qaus regional committee and until a month ago, when he was afflicted with liver disease, This task advanced. Even though Comrade Zahir illness for a month, he did not forget his struggle duties in any way. A few days before his passing, he submitted the party documents to the responsible comrades and gave a detailed and timely report on the progress of his duties and responsibilities.

Comrade Zahir was born in 1960 in a hardworking peasant family. He successfully completed elementary, intermediate and high school education and after passing the national entrance exam in 1978 entered the Faculty of Economics of Kabul University.

Comrade Zahir was one of the activists of the new democratic movement inside Kabul University in 1978-1979. He joined the Afghan People's Liberation Organization (APLO) in 1979, and merged with the Afghanistan Liberation Organization after the collapse of APLO. But the ideological and political positions of the above-mentioned two organizations (APLO&ALO) did not respond to his revolutionary thirst and principled struggling spirit, until finally joined the C(M)PA in 2012. He got his main struggling position in the party after a lot of campaigning effort and continued his duties with revolutionary enthusiasm and honesty until the end of his life. He never left the country. He lived among his people and died among the people.
